

Central Peninsula Habitat for Humanity

Building houses in partnership with God's people in need

Dear Applicant,

Habitat for Humanity is a nonprofit organization based on and supported by volunteer labor and donations. Habitat builds simple, decent homes with the help of homeowner (partner) families. Once finished, the homes to the partner families are financed with affordable, no-interest loans. The Central Peninsula Habitat for Humanity is an affiliate, working under the umbrella of Habitat for Humanity, International.

The first step in the application process is to be sure you meet the minimum qualifications. Please read the following to see if your family is ready to complete the enclosed application.

- Must have a housing need. For example: overcrowding, plumbing problems, poor heating, leaking roof, mold, electrical problems.
- Need to have lived in our service area for at least one full year.
- Must have a minimum steady income of $1,250.00 per month ($15,000.00 per year).
- Must work 500 sweat equity hours. These hours can be any combination of construction hours, Habitat office help, or assisting at Habitat events.
- Must be willing to join in programs to learn and practice budgeting, home repair and maintenance.

If you are approved for a Habitat home and you meet the required sweat equity, earnest money, down payment and nurturing requirements, we will sell you a house below market value.

During the application and interview process, members of the Family Selection Committee will verify employment, along with any other income, verifying checking and savings accounts, get a statement from your current and previous landlords, and have a credit check done.

There will be $250 earnest money due within 30 days of acceptance, and $1,000 due at closing.

All information is considered confidential and will be used only for the family selection process. Habitat for Humanity will not discriminate against an applicant due to sex, race, age, marital status, or creed.

The Habitat staff is happy to help you fill out the application if needed. Please send the completed application to: Central Peninsula Habitat for Humanity, PO Box 2907, Soldotna, AK. 99669, or scan and email to: cphfh15@gmail.com. If you have any questions please call our office at 907.283.7797.
